Experience

Chef Donnell is a well versed Culinary and Hospitality Professional with over 30 plus years of hospitality experience in several foodservice environments from corporate food service, an upscale steakhouse, medical, retirement facility to independent eateries. He is a short and long-term culinary project specialist that brings unprecedented revenue growth, customer satisfaction/loyalty, staff engagement and operational strategies and solutions to start-up and existing restaurants.

He has a wealth of experience with running successful food service/restaurant operations, a keen sense of food trends, styles, and branding of food offerings for various environments that will offer seasonal and regional selections for a customer base that will increase revenue and customers. Excellent menu and recipe development of food items with exhibition cooking, weekly food offerings, themed meals. Other valuable skills include customer service, branding, marketing, project management, new menu rollout, HACCP/food safety, culinary operations, and financial acumen.
