Professional Experience

Julie has spent years developing high performing teams, talent and strategic vision while delivering outcomes for Nutrition Services at The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center (WMC), a 7-hospital system located in Columbus, Ohio. She served in progressive leadership roles starting as a staff dietitian in 1988 and serving 14 years as the Director of Nutrition Services. Julie's strengths lie in translating ideas into practice, directing teams and developing a positive work culture. She and her team won numerous awards for innovative design, service delivery and technology applications.

Julie has also led both the Ohio Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics as well as the Association for Healthcare Foodservice. She has received the highest awards from these Associations for both leadership and the advancement of practice in her field. She has been awarded the IFMA Silver Plate for Healthcare Foodservice recognizing the best in operational talent for the industry.
